

February 6, 1976

that I had not been aware of this particular information. Since the Conestoga wagons came to this country and help settle Nebraska, it seems to me that this would be a very fitting type of motion for this particular body to take at this time. I have changed my mind. I am planning to support it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature, I was going to amend that to the Volkswagon but he asked us not to amend it so I will not speak on it.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall LR 119 pass? Record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record. Senator Mills.

SENATOR MILLS: I hate to but I told those people I would let you know how you felt.

PRESIDENT: Tell them they don't care.

SENATOR MILLS: 22 don't care.

PRESIDENT: What is your motion, Senator.

SENATOR MILLS: I will have a Call of the House. There is 22 people not voting.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the House go under Call. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 8 ayes, 19 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: We go to LR 106. Announce that vote.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 14 nays.

PRESIDENT: The Resolution is not adopted. How many copies don't you want printed, Senator Mills? We go to LR 106. Senator Murphy.

CLERK: LR 106 is found on page 117 of the Legislative Journal.

SENATOR MURPHY: Gentlemen, if I may, this Resolution is not just another resolution that will go to Congress and be filed along with the 117 that we have passed in the last four years, none of which have borne fruit. This resolution is a twofold attack on the proposition of what becomes of the national debt. Now this is a matter of concern to every person in every walk of life and well it should be. It has run unchecked, uncontrolled. Surely Congress has a statutory limit on national debt, and everytime we approach it, they simply move it up. It is totally meaningless and has absolutely no affect on what is happening to us. We have already reached almost $600,000,000,000 in debt. For a family of four, that is $12,000 that we are passing on to our children